Dear Friends,

May the blessings of all that is good and holy bathe you and your family this New Year! Certainly we could use an extra helping of goodness and grace. We have faced off with so many unexpected struggles. It seems we could really benefit from a straight pathway to truth and peace!

However, who and what can we trust? The media is filled with conflicting information. It seems that we get tossed around in a sea of data only to end up more confused and worried than before. Where do we go for sound and grounded truth?

Maybe that's not the right question to be asking? Maybe the world's way of acquiring information was never meant to lead us to truth? Maybe we need to look elsewhere? Perhaps what we really need is a path to the endless wisdom that's always waiting to give us the peace for all ages.

As I prayed about these issues I was drawn to scripture as a source of holy direction. These verses seemed to provide a new light for our daily strife. "Happy is the one who finds wisdom and the one who gets understanding, for the gain from silver and its profits better than gold. She is more precious than jewels, and nothing you desire can compare with her. Long life is in her right hand; in her left hand are riches and honor. Her ways are ways of pleasantness and all her paths are peace. She is a tree of life to those who lay hold her fast are called happy." {Proverbs 3:13-18}

After reading these verses it occurred to me, "That sounds wonderful! Wisdom is the still voice of the Holy Spirit and it has already been breathed into us by the power of God and it's FREE. No wonder the media usually ignores it. It can't be sold! It can only be used and appreciated. And it definitely can't be marketed." With this in mind, let us take a new road for peace and happiness this year. Then we can all become "Magi" by following the Light from within and trusting in the promise of Jesus that His love is a guiding beacon and when we seek it in silence divine truth is revealed.

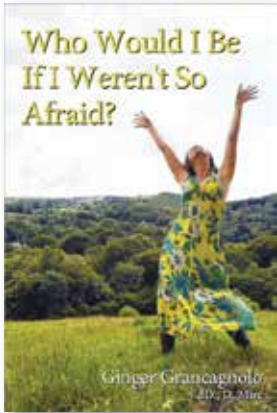

May the wisdom of God direct us and may His eternal peace keep us safe!

Blessings,
